

Protection Against Social Engineering

Spot deception attempts – and protect yourself effectively.

This course raises your employees' awareness of the risks of social engineering and teaches effective protection strategies for everyday work.

Quick Facts

Focus: Protection against deception attempts and security incidents caused by social engineering

Duration: 15 minutes
(based on average completion time)

Target group: Employees from all departments

Flexible: Available via your LMS or our online platform

Certificate: Legally compliant proof of participation included

Key Learning Content for Your Employees

- Understanding social engineering: How attackers exploit trust to create security vulnerabilities.
- Identifying attack methods: The most common deception techniques – from phishing to CEO fraud.
- Recognising warning signs: Typical indicators and signals in day-to-day work.
- Implementing protective measures: Enhancing action competence and closing security gaps.

Effective Learning Through Modern Methods

- Storytelling: Real-life inspired stories for practical relevance.
- Playful learning: Interactive elements encourage active engagement.
- Practical examples: Everyday scenarios make threats tangible.
- Final quiz: Test and reinforce knowledge for greater confidence in action.

Expert Knowledge for Your Employees

Digital security rarely fails due to technology, but often due to human factors – the best defence is a well-trained team.
Johannes Gilch – Lawyer

Raise your employees' awareness of digital deception!
Test it now with no obligation!

Start demo